Massage Training for

Doulas, Midwives, Massage Therapists, Early Childhood Development Workers, Daycare Workers & Medical Pros!

Christine Sutherland helped to deliver her first home delivery over thirty years ago. During this training program for instructors in pregnancy, labour & delivery and baby massage she will be teaching with her most recent home and hospital delivered newborns and their parents! Experience traditional and contemporary!

Christine started the Canadian Institute of Baby Massage in 1985 and has taught infant massage around the world. Her background in documentary film is part of the training for instructors to learn to film their teaching tutorials, edit them and send them to the students (parents and grandparents) they teach.

Grandbaby Massage and Dads Only Massage classes will be featured as part of this training program. Participants will prepare their PR packages for teaching and graduate with their own teaching film. There is an oral and practical examination for certification.
